STATE BOOSTS COUNTY GRANT FOR CHILD AID

A $225,000 increase in state subsidies to 64 Pennsylvania counties for child welfare services during the second quarter of the current year was announced today by Gov. William W. Scranton.

Included in the total is $5,827.72 for Adams County as compared with $3,450.22 last year. Statewide, the increase is from $738,071 to 63 counties in the April - May - June period last year to $963,063 this year.

"These increases," the governor said, "are being made under provisions of legislation enacted by the 1963 General Assembly to establish a more effective partnership between the state and counties for all child welfare services."

The governor explained that state grants are computed by the state Department of Public Welfare in accordance with a formula based on relative need and the fiscal capability of the county itself to contribute.

Conditional upon the individual county's child welfare program meeting department regulations, state grants are in addition to federal payments made to counties where child welfare workers are employed under an approved merit system.

Borough Police Made 31 Arrests
Gettysburg police made 31 arrests during April, according to the monthly report of Chief of Police Jack Bartlett. Ten were on criminal charges and 21 for traffic violations.

The officers investigated six auto accidents and 255 other complaints, provided 14 escorts and 68 "assistants" to other departments.

The officers reported finding three of four wallets reported lost and two of three lost bicycles. They recovered one stolen car and located a missing person.

Borough police said Johnson, operating a car owned by Dr. Carroll Voss, Gettysburg R. 1, was headed south on Carlisle St. when the Moneyhon auto pulled out from Water St. in front of the approaching car and attempting to turn north.

Damage was estimated at $450 to the vehicle Johnson was driving and at $300 to the Moneyhon auto. Police said they will bring charges of failing to yield the right of way against Moneyhon.

TRADING ACTIVE
NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market clung to a small gain early this afternoon in active trading.

The list was pushing into record high ground for the fifth straight session, but seemed to have trouble holding its gains as the session wore on.

A parade of large blocks again boosted the volume total and, if the pace continued, it would probably be another six-million-share day.

"OPEN HOUSE" AT CHARNITA

The first in a series of informal open house inspections to keep the public informed of the progress of development at Adams County's 2,000-acre recreation resort at Charnita, near Fairfield, will be held Sunday with the opening of a new 13-acre lake to be used for fishing and boating.

Officials of Charnita Corp. said today that a number of "open house" weekends will be scheduled through the summer as the area is developed to provide permanent homes, camping facilities, sports activities and a year-round golf course. The first four greens of the 18-hole PGA-approved golf course are under construction at the present time. The course will be ready for use in the spring of 1966.

The first of three lakes has been completed and filled with water from Tom's Creek. This is the smallest of the lakes to be constructed in the development during the next year. Two 100-foot wells each providing a flow of 150 gallons per minute have been drilled and will supply a reservoir with water for the clubhouse, golf course and swimming pool.

More than five miles of gravel roads have been completed and are ready for paving and power poles have been placed by Adams Electric Cooperative, Inc., to provide street lighting throughout the area. More than 60 home sites have been sold in Section A of the development, a spokesman said. A road to the top of Mt. Charnita, eventual site of an 18-story hotel, has been completed and provides visitors a panoramic view of the development.

Pittsburgh Attorney Charles Caputo was the principal speaker. Attorney Caputo, an assistant city solicitor, said, "There is not a single major effort on the part of any community that does not have among the committee in charge its representation from the clubs, and many of the major improvements that have been made in many of our towns throughout the commonwealth have started from the interest and activity of some local club."

CITES SERVICE

"The club is a place where the family can go to meet friends. But it is more than that; it is a gathering place for citizens of the community to promote the betterment of their communities. The basic goals of each club are different. The veterans groups seek to inculcate patriotism and it is through their efforts that there are Memorial Day exercises, Loyalty and Veterans' Day programs. ## COUPLE FOUND GUILTY ON 3 CHARGES HERE

Mack Arthur Scott, and his wife, Donna Jane Scott, both of Gettysburg, were found guilty by an Adams County jury Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock of charges of burglary, larceny and forgery.

The Scotts had been accused with Glenn Edward Kint, Fairfield, of stealing a check writer and book of checks from the Gettysburg Foundry Specialties, Greenmount, last December and then writing various checks on the company which they cashed after forging the name of John DeHaas to the checks.

Kint had entered a plea of guilty to the charge and was the principal witness against the Scotts. Mrs. Scott and Kint had been engaged until Scott arrived here from Georgia after which the engagement was broken and she married Mr. Scott.

DELIBERATED TWO HOURS

Scott was an employee of Gettysburg Foundry Specialties at the time of the crime. Kint said the Scotts had approached him to join them in burglarizing the establishment of the checks and check writer and forging the checks.

The jury deliberated from 4:05 o'clock until 6 when Foreman Lloyd Bream, Bendersville, handed up the verdict. At the request of defense counsel, Oscar F. Spicer, the jury was polled, and each of the 12 responded "guilty."

The trial marked the second time the case had been before the court. At a prior trial, one of the jurors had called an investigating policeman for further details on the case and as a result a mistrial was declared, and the case set for this term of court.

LAST CASE FOR TRIAL

Three of the checks which the state contended were forged by the Scotts and Kint were made out to "John Laugman," and that name was signed to the back. They were for $50, $92.63 and $215.30.

A fourth check, which was cashed at Gilbert's Market at Biglerville, was for $72.43 and was made out to a "David Cool." It was signed by "David Cool"

Titan Rocket Launched For "Acrobatics" Out In Space

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A Titan 3A rocket carrying two satellites flung its third stage into orbit as a flying launch platform today to trigger a series of intended orbit-shifting space acrobatics.

The 124-foot-tall booster blazed away from Cape Kennedy. The satellites were to be released at 2:24 p.m. after the third stage, called a transtage, fired its engines for a third time, each time changing orbit.

The Air Force reported 13 minutes after the 10 a.m. (EST) launching that the transtage had fired successfully the first time and propelled itself into a circular orbit 115 miles high. Packed in its nose were an 80-pound experimental communications satellite and a 75-pound sphere designed to help calibrate radars and radio systems in America's worldwide satellite tracking network.

TO RESTART ENGINES

After one 90-minute circuit of the globe in the initial orbit, the transtage was to re-start its engines and swing into an elliptical path ranging from 115 to 1,725 miles high.

When the transtage reached the high point of the egg-shaped orbit the second time, planned for 4 hours 24 minutes after launching, a third ignition was to circularize the course at 1,725 miles and the two satellites were to be kicked free.

The communications satellite carried a small motor which was to ignite to push it into a course reaching out to more than 11,000 miles. The satellite was to check long-life materials and techniques for future military communications satellites.

UNPRECEDENTED MOVE

After 6 hours 54 minutes of flight, the transtage was to attempt an unprecedented fourth origin to again shift its orbit to one ranging from 1,725 miles to 2,300 miles. The Air Force gave this experiment a 50-50 chance of success.

On Feb. 11, another Titan 3A transtage achieved the first triple firing in space.

The launching was the fourth and last planned for Titan 3A, which will serve as the upper three stages for a powerful Titan 3C rocket being developed by the Air Force for a variety of manned and unmanned military missions. The first test firing of the 3C is scheduled here in June.

The maneuverability of the transtage will be essential for military flights which will require orbit-shifting, such as manned reconnaissance, satellite interception or space rescue.

DR. SHEPPARD IS ORDERED TO RETURN TO PEN

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Attorney F. Lee Bailey, determined to keep Dr. Sam Sheppard out of Ohio Penitentiary, thinks the case will end up in the U.S. Supreme Court.

Bailey planned to arrive here today from Boston and confer immediately with Sheppard, then with two attorneys helping him on the case.

Sheppard's long fight for permanent freedom was set back when the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati Wednesday ordered him back to prison. The vote was 2-1.

"I was somewhat surprised," Bailey said in Boston. "I thought one of the judges might go against us, but never two. I think there is a chance for a rehearing."

WILL FILE APPEAL

Bailey said "The case has got to end up in the U.S. Supreme Court." I will file a notice of appeal in the next 20 days, and this should stay execution of the order to return Sam to the penitentiary."

Sheppard was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1954 for the bludgeoning slaying of his first wife, Marilyn, at their suburban Bay Village home along Lake Erie. He was released last July after 10 years when U.S. District Judge Carl Weinman ruled he had not received a fair trial because of the publicity the case received.

The state appealed Judge Weinman's ruling.

APPEAL BOND

Bailey has 20 days to seek a stay of execution and file an appeal with the U.S. Supreme Court. If the stay is approved, the District Court could set an appeal bond for Sheppard, which would keep him out of prison until the Supreme Court decides on the new appeal.

Sheppard lives with his second wife, former German divorcee Ariane Tebbenjohanns, in suburban Rocky River. When informed of Wednesday's decision, he said: "I was terribly disappointed. All our hopes now lie with the U.S. Supreme Court."

Sheppard, 41, a former osteopath, married Ariane in Chicago two days after his release from prison.

If Sheppard is returned to prison, he'll be eligible for parole in two months, according to Ohio Penitentiary officials.

Today's Talk

BE A "MISSED" PERSON

There is a secret something to every human being who is outstanding, with gifts or virtues so evident that they fascinate instantly, inviting love and confidence on the part of all who come in contact with such a personality.

We all know such people and they always give us a lift when we meet them. We try to arrange meetings with one and when he's gone from our presence, he is missed. Why? When I went to college a long way from home I got very homesick, as did every other student away from home for the first time. The president of the college sensed this and remarked in the chapel hour that it was nothing to be ashamed of, rather something to be proud of, for it proved that we came from good homes.

When people miss you, you may well know that you have something within you that is worth missing. Those whom we love most we miss most. A "missed" person is distinguished by a number of things, such as selflessness, a tolerant air, a love of justice, fair dealing, an open mind, and a buoyant spirit. Any of these fine traits can be cultivated, and even acquired, for anyone hoping for success in life must have them to a marked degree.

Every day one is reminded of the missed ones — one's personal friends, those now gone, whose acts and memory however freshen one's mind concerning them, and those wonderful, most intimate associates who make each one of us a little when they die and leave us. No words can express how we miss them.

No one of us is indispensable, but we miss those who are displaced, for some reason or other, whom we thought were indispensable. We miss many a dominant figure who, in days gone by, stood out from the crowd, rendering unusual service to humanity. Never can such people be forgotten. How we miss them when a crisis arises and their judgment and courage are recalled!

People with a genuine smile, as an accompaniment to them, who have a cheerful outlook upon life, and who entertain an optimistic spirit, in the midst of fear, complainings and emergencies, are those whom we miss, even for a day or so! We get tied to them, somehow.

HAIR APPOINTMENT

Young man when you are married for your wife you'll often wait, But for a hair appointment she won't be one minute late. Don't ever get the notion you have powers that can persuade Your partner to forget it once a hair appointment's made.

Invite her down for luncheon. "Not today," she will reply, "I am going to have a hair-do and it takes an hour to dry. And another hour to set it. I don't like to tell you this, A hair appointment's one thing that I really mustn't miss."

No bridge game; no canasta on that most important day; No shopping trip; no luncheon and, of course, no matinee. You will learn it when you're married, be she either well or ill, If she has a hair appointment keep that date she surely will.

RALPH TERRY MOWS DOWN YANKS 4-0 FOR INDIANS

By MIKE RATHET

Ralph Terry of the Cleveland Indians was so effective in his first start against his former New York Yankee teammates that he struck out one of them with a pitch he doesn't even throw.

Terry, the hero of the 1962 World Series dispatched to Cleveland in the Pedro Ramos trade last season, waited almost seven months for a shot at the Yankees and then spent only an hour and 40 minutes mowing them down on three hits for a 4-0 victory Wednesday night.

Strikeout victim Tom Tresh was one of the Yankees impressed with Terry's performance.

MADE HIM "HAPPY"

"He sure threw me one pitch I've never seen him use before," said Tresh. "He struck me out with a kind of screwball that came up to me and broke down and out."

"I don't throw a screwball," said Terry. "I throw fastballs, curves, and sliders."

Terry, who had a 7-11 record last year, admitted that he was "happy about winning that one but I wanted to make sure I didn't rub it in."

Nevertheless, it seemed like he did.

USES 70 PITCHES

Terry pitched effortlessly, using only 70 pitches. He allowed only singles, did not walk a man and did not allow a runner past first base while bringing his record to 4-1 and reducing his earned-run average to an eye-popping 1.66.

The Chicago White Sox, meanwhile, received strong performances from John Buzhardt and Joe Horlen, each pitching a four-hitter in 4-0 and 4-1 triumphs over Detroit. Camilo Pascual checked Baltimore on six hits in Minnesota's 9-2 victory and the Los Angeles Angels downed Boston 6-4.

Washington and Kansas City were not scheduled.

GET EARLY HOMERS

The Indians had lost 10 straight to the Yankees in Cleveland, but quicker than you can say White Ford they had given Terry more working room than he needed.

With two on in the first inning, Leon Wagner homered off Ford, Rocky Colavito singled, Max Alvis walked and Fred Whitfield homered. That eventually left Ford's record at 2-2.

Buzhardt, now 3-0, struck out 11 and allowed only one Tiger to reach third base in the opener while Bill Skowron and Ron Hansen supplied home run support. Skowron also doubled and scored another run while Hansen collected another run batted in with a sacrifice fly.

Horlen was tagged for an inside-the-park homer by Dick McAuliffe in the sixth inning and went into the seventh trailing 1-0. Then the White Sox struck for four runs.

7TH WIN FOR ANGELS

Skowron's double, in between two walks issued by Dave Wickersham, loaded the bases. Smoky Burgess drove in two runs with a pinch-hit single before reliever Larry Sherry balked home one run and let in another with a wild pitch.

Pascual, bringing his record to 3-0, struck out eight and walked only one while Zoilo Versalles provided the power with four hits and four RBI. Versalles tripled home a run in the second, slapped a two-run single in the third and doubled home another in the seventh.

The Angels made it seven victories in nine games with rookie Paul Schaaf hitting his fifth homer and Willie Smith slugging a double and two singles. Fred Newman got the victory for a 3-1 record with Bob Lee's ninth-inning relief help.

Canner Squads In Sheppard Relays

Biglerville High School's relay teams tallied one and one-half points in the Class B events of the 16th annual Sonny Sheppard Memorial relays Wednesday evening at Hanover.

The Canner medley squad finished fifth and the 440 relay outfit finished in a tie with Kenard-Dale for fifth place.

Six new meet records were set in the affair.

York won the Class A title and Class B honors went to Columbia.

FROSH BLANK BULLIS PREP

The Gettysburg College Freshmen opened their short season with a 6-0 win over Bullis Prep here Wednesday afternoon.

Bob Walters and Joe Records combined the six-hit shutout pitching for the Little Bullets.

Walters went seven innings striking out eight and walking one while Records, in two innings, fanned three and walked one.

Catcher Bob Lesh was the big hitter in the Bullis cause with a pair of singles. Gary Ford tossed for Bullis with help from Tom Tudor in the eighth. Shortstop Pete Swindell paced the losers with two hits including the only extra blow of the game, a double.

Gettysburg scored in the fifth when Walters got on via a fielder's choice. Runner Rick Trethaway then came all the way around on three wild pitches. The Little Bullets added three runs in the sixth and two more in the eighth.

Coach Howard Shoemaker's frosh will meet the same Bullis team next Thursday in Silver Spring, Md.

Walker battled defending MAC champ Bob Morris to three sets before losing 1-6, 6-3, 2-6. The entire encounter between the two was a fine exhibition of tennis. Walker will take part in Friday morning's first rounds of the MAC's.

The Bullet ace teamed with second man "Chuck" Miller and engaged in another three set encounter, this time dropping a 2-6, 6-3, 1-6 decision to Marty Gilbert and Rusty Silverman.

Despite altering the lineup, the Bullets could produce but one individual winner, John Gribb. Gribb, playing out of the number three spot, defeated Don Cook, 2-1. Lehigh carded three shutouts in the "match play." By Hertslet, the Engineers' number two man, was medalist for the day with a blistering 38-35-73. ## 49 Players Assigned To Big Little League Teams; Official Scorer Is Needed

JIM BUNNING HITS HOMER TO BEAT SPAHN'S 4-HIT EFFORT

Jim Bunning of the Philadelphia Phils, who made his comeback last year, has temporarily sidetracked Warren Spahn's 1965 revival by beating the great southpaw at his own game.

Bunning, whose perfect game last June 21 against the New York Mets helped him capture National League comeback laurels, returned to Shea Stadium Wednesday night and personally outscored the Mets and Spahn 1-0 with an opposite-field home run.

The homer was Bunning's first in the league. Spahn has 36, the all-time record for NL pitchers.

Spahn, determined at 44 years of age to bounce back from his 6-13 season with Milwaukee in 1964, pitched his best game as a Met, matching Bunning's four-hitter. But the pitch that Bunning hit over the right field fence in the sixth inning made Spahn a loser for the second time in four decisions.

Bunning's homer left him seven behind San Francisco's Willie Mays for the year. Mays hit No. 8, high in the majors, in the Giants' 10-5, 10-inning victory at St. Louis. Milwaukee nipped Houston 2-1 in 14 innings, the Los Angeles Dodgers topped Cincinnati 4-2 and the Chicago Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 3-1 in other NL games.

Bunning yielded four singles while improving his current record to 2-3. He retired 20 of 21 Met batters during one stretch and wrapped up the victory by striking out the side in the ninth.

"I hit a high curve ball," he said of the home-run pitch. "Spahn should know better than to throw a high curve to a country boy — or a good-hitting pitcher."

The Giants exploded for five runs in the 10th inning after two errors by second baseman Phil Gagliano on the same play opened the gates. Jim Davenport led off the inning with a double, took third on a ground out and scored the go-ahead run when Gagliano bobbled Ed Bailey's grounder, then threw wildly to the plate.

A bases-loaded triple by Willie McCovey and a run-scoring double by Mays capped the rally. Mays' leadoff homer in the eighth had tied the score 5-5.

Left-hander Wade Blasingame pitched the entire 14 innings for Milwaukee, yielding only five hits and striking out 12, while Eddie Mathews' two-out double in the 14th delivered Mack Jones with the winning run.

Dick Farrell, the Houston starter, was struck on the back of the head by Hank Aaron's line drive in the last of the ninth. He finished the inning but was removed for a pinch hitter in the 10th.

Home runs by Dick Tracewski and Ron Fairly helped Sandy Koufax, 3-1, top Cincinnati for the 1-6 a g u e-leading Dodgers. Fairly's inside-the-park homer and a two-run shot by Tracewski, both in the fifth inning, sent southpaw Jim O'Toole down to his fourth straight loss.

Chicago's Bob Buhl checked Pittsburgh on three hits for his third victory in four decisions. Jim Paganioni's eighth-inning homer ended his shutout bid.

STUART DENIES SAYING MAUCH IS BAD LEADER

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There's supposed to be a king-sized feud brewing between Philadelphia first baseman Dick Stuart and Manager Gene Mauch. Both deny it.

Stuart is incensed over a story in which he was quoted as calling Mauch a bad manager.

The article also quoted Stuart as saying, "I play 15 games. All of a sudden he finds out I can't hit and I can't field. The team's going bad so he's looking for a guy to blame."

Mauch had benched Stuart for three games after Dick had gone 0-for-13 in a four-game stretch ending last Saturday. The Phillies lost all four games. Dick was hitting .222 with only two home runs and had committed five errors.

DENIES ACCUSATION

"I never said Mauch was a bad manager," Stuart said before Wednesday night's game.

Charter No. 9114

with the New York Mets. "I would have to be crazy to say that about any manager. I make too many mistakes myself."

"When I was with the Boston Red Sox, I had several run-ins with Johnny Pesky. But I never called him a bad manager."

As proof he intended to inflict no further punishment on the 6-foot-3, 215-pound slugger, whose fielding at first base has earned him the nickname of "Stone-fingers," Mauch had him in the line-up Wednesday night.

Stuart responded by rapping a line single his first time at bat. He sent the Mets' center field and left fielder to the wall with towering drives in his next two times at bat. In his last turn, he went out on a line drive to the right fielder.

1-0 VICTORY

The Phillies won 1-0 in a brilliant hurling duel between Jim Bunning and Warren Spahn. Each gave up only four hits but one of the Phillies' hits was a home run by Bunning.

Mauch and Stuart had a 20-minute conversation in the privacy of the manager's office before the big fellow's name was posted on the line-up card.

"I benched him because I thought it was the thing to do," Mauch said.

Mauch would say after-

The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

Chaplain, Major General, Robert Preston Taylor, Chief of Air Force Chaplains, United States Air Force is the only chaplain still on active duty who survived the "Bataan Death March" and the horrors of 42 months in Japanese prison camps. He served as Chaplain in the prison camp hospital at Cabanatuan where he ministered to more than 10,000 patients. In the summer of 1944 he spent fourteen weeks in solitary confinement for smuggling food and medicine. Later he was sent to Japan and Manchuria on one of the infamous "hell ships." Telling of the many manifestations of faith he saw and experienced during those months, Chaplain Taylor recalled the story of his prison choir director who found renewed strength in silent prayer during the march to stagger another 100 yards to a rest area. Had he fallen from exhaustion, as many did, he would have been shot.

Chaplain Taylor said, "The men responded to religion in a natural way. They took it as a man who has a spark within him that he cannot explain." As one young soldier put it, "I wouldn't be here if I hadn't relied on faith in God, country and myself."

Chaplain Taylor has lived and seen the power of faith in one of the greatest times of trial in our nation's history.

WARRIORS AND KNICKS WILL GET 1ST DRAW

NEW YORK (AP) — San Francisco and New York reap the first benefits of the National Basketball Association's new help-the-poor plan today when the pro league stages its annual player draft.

The two divisional tail-enders, the Warriors in the West and the Knicks in the East, each will get two of the first four selections. If San Francisco wins the coin toss, it will take Nos. 1 and 3 on the first round and New York Nos. 2 and 4.

If the flip goes to New York, it will take 1 and 4—since its record was better than San Francisco's — and the Warriors Nos. 2 and 3.

GAMBLE ON BRADLEY

One of the Knicks' first-round choices probably will be a gamble on Princeton's great Bill Bradley. Under the NBA system of territorial apportionment, Princeton belongs to New York and the Knicks thus get first chance at Bradley.

However, the Tiger All-America is a Rhodes Scholar, bound for two years at Oxford, and then plans to study law. If the Knicks pick Bradley, it will be a move to have him under wraps should he change his mind about a pro career.

After San Francisco and New York, teams will pick according to won-lost records, in inverse order of percentage. Detroit is third, followed by Baltimore, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Los Angeles and Boston.

Cuban Exiles Spot Red Training Camps

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A map of Cuba pinpointing 13 purported Communist training camps for subversives was distributed today by Revolutionary Unity, a Cuban exile organization.

Described as a training site for Dominican revolutionaries was the Minas de Frio camp in easternmost Oriente Province, nearest to the Dominican Republic.

The exile group said Dominicans also were reported to have trained at a camp near Trinidad, on the southern coast of central Cuba. It said Central Americans, Haitians and British Guianese also drilled there.

MAUCH NOT HAPPY

It is no secret that Mauch has not been happy with Stuart's lackadaisical play in the field. It is his belief that Dick has not been diligent in his efforts to improve his fielding.

"I just know he can improve," said Mauch. "I've seen him make enough good plays to know he can field. But he's got to work at it."

"I feel I give 100 per cent effort all the time," Stuart said. "But maybe I give the impression of being lackadaisical. My basic movements are nonchalant. All tall guys have a tendency to look nonchalant."

72 GOLFERS AT FT. WORTH

By JIM MANGAN

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Seventy-two of the top names in golf — here by invitation only — came to grips today with one of the toughest golf courses on the professional tour, the 7,132-yard Colonial Country Club layout. The winner takes home $20,000.

Julius Boros, the casual 46-year-old ex-accountant, carded a brilliant five-under-par 65 in a pro-amateur Wednesday and immediately moved up high on the favored list.

A two-time winner of the Colonial Invitation, Boros bogeyed only one hole and sank putts up to 25 feet in a round that was only one stroke over the competitive course record set by Doug Ford in 1961.

Seeking a second straight tournament victory will be Arnold Palmer, fresh from taking top money in the Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas, his first tour triumph in almost a year. He shot a 73 Wednesday as a prelude to the main event. Dapper Chi Chi Rodriguez, who staged a terrific birdie

RAP OFFICIALS FOR HANDLING COLLEGE FUNDS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Scranton administration's fiscal handling of the 14 state colleges is under fire from both Republicans and Democrats on the House Appropriations Committee.

The legislators scored the Republican administration Wednesday for not spending all the money available to the schools.

Other criticism included budget cuts, red tape involved in getting budget approval and charges of slowness in constructing college buildings.

Also appearing before the Democratic-controlled committee was state Police Commissioner E. Wilson Purdy, who explained his department's budget request of $24.6 million for fiscal 1965-66.

POLICE SHORTAGE

The state police budget includes the addition of 300 troopers and 38 civilian employees to bolster the 2,285-man force.

Purdy said a manpower shortage forces the department to use only 19 patrol cars throughout the state between midnight and 8 a.m.

Several of the committee members repeated their criticism that—in their opinion—state colleges are being short-changed in favor of state-paid institutions.

Dr. Earl Sykes, president of West Chester State College, said that in the last few years student enrollment has doubled. He told the committee that the state colleges would like the freedom of handling their own finances.

Committee Chairman Martin P. Mullen, D-Philadelphia, and Rep. Guy Kistler, R-Cumberland, both questioned why $2 million of the current appropriation to the schools is being unspent.

WANTS DRIVER "BLACK LIST" MADE PUBLIC

HARRISBURG (AP) — Secretary of Revenue Theodore B. Smith Jr. wants to resume full distribution of lists of motorists who had their licenses suspended or revoked.

Smith said Wednesday he sent a letter to Grace M. Sloan, the new auditor general, asking her to consider the matter.

Until April 14 it had been the practice of the Revenue Department to make periodic distribution of the so-called "black list" to news media and such groups as insurance companies and magistrates.

But the last auditor general, Thomas Z. Minehart, objected last March on grounds that the Revenue Department lacked specific statutory authority to prepare the lists for dissemination, Smith said.

However, last April 29, Minehart denied any responsibility for the Revenue Department's restrictions on the list distribution.

The list now is distributed only to state police and local police departments. It is on view to the public in Harrisburg.

High School Ace Accepts Grant

HARRISBURG (AP) — Dennis Stewart, one of the top high school basketball players in Pennsylvania, said Wednesday he has accepted a full grant-in-aid scholarship to Michigan University.

Over 70 colleges were interested in Stewart.

The 6-5½, 212-pound athlete scored 1,737 points in a three-year varsity career at Steelton-Highspire High School, near Harrisburg.

Stewart was one of the two top vote-getters on the Associated Press All-State selection this past season. His team played in the state championship earlier this year but lost to Midland.

Recover Second Body From River

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP) — The body of the second occupant of a light plane which plunged into the Susquehanna River last month was recovered from the river Wednesday night, state police reported.

He was identified as Jack Stevenson, about 30, of Allenwood, Pa. Also killed in the crash April 10 was the pilot, Howard Flaeger of Allenwood, R.D. 1.

Two boys on a small island near this Northumberland County town made the discovery Wednesday. The single-engine plane struck a high tension wire near Allenwood, a few miles north of here, and plunged into the river.

Canadian Newsmen Writes About Life In Red China

EDITOR'S NOTE — Charles Lynch is one of three Canadian reporters currently permitted to operate in China — U.S. reporters are barred from the country. This is one of his dispatches filed to the Southern newspapers of Canada.

By CHARLES LYNCH

SHENYANG (Mukden), China (AP) — The easiest way to locate this place is to say that had MacArthur bombed across the Yalu River during the Korean War, this is where his planes would have headed.

Shenyang is the capital of Liaoning province, the traditional industrial area of China, still going strong but now rivaled by the new industrial centers springing up all over this burgeoning land.

The Japanese used Shenyang as their headquarters during their 14-year occupation of Manchuria, when they set up the puppet Manchukuo empire here. The city once was known as Mukden, but that name has Christian overtones that the Chinese do not care to remember.

MANY CHANGES

This was the jumping-off point for Japanese incursions into the rest of China, and much later, it was the jumping-off point in the other direction for the Chinese troops on their way to the Korean War.

Our hotel, built in 1925 in the old European fashion, used to be known as the Ta Ho — now, it's the Liaoning. Nothing about the hotel has changed, but the changes in Shenyang are manifold.

Not that they've altered the Old City, the palaces and tombs of the Manchus who first set up shop here in 1644, subsequently moved to Peking, and who ruled China until 1912. The city itself is said to date back 1,800 years, but to its present occupants, it is 16 years old — dating, as almost everything else in China does, from the Communist "liberation."

EXHIBITION BALL

The "cathedral" of Shenyang is the industrial exhibition hall, built in 1959, filled with machines of a complexity that gratify the Chinese mind, and all made by Chinese hands.

Among the good things of the old China, it is generally agreed, good housing for workers and peasants was definitely not included. And it is in this area that the new Shenyang is most impressive, since it includes four vast workers' villages.

GREAT LEAP FORWARD

Here, tens of thousands of industrial workers are housed in conditions that rival anything similar in Asia. North American standards do not apply, and the Chinese make no such claim — but the leap from the old housing to the new is a great leap forward, indeed.

The apartment buildings, three stories high, stretch for blocks in every direction. I picked a doorway at random and found myself the guest of Ten Shi-chin, who earns $40 a month as a leading worker at the Shenyang metallurgical machinery factory.

The welcome was warm. The living quarters were Spartan but neat. One room serves as living room, dining room and bedroom for Ten, his wife, and their four children — the parents in one broad bed, the children, aged up to 12 years, in the other. The beds, covered with straw matting, become part of the living space by day, in the Chinese fashion.

FEW UNHAPPY FACES

And in the Chinese fashion, this was living — gas burners in the kitchen, an electric light bulb, a radio, a clock, and a bicycle. The rent is $1.20 a month.

Across the street is the department store where eggs are three cents apiece, cabbage five cents each, and pork is 35 cents a pound. Strong drink is $1.10 a bottle, but canned fruit costs 50 cents a can and rates as a special treat for the kids. Refrigeration is no problem — the Chinese housewife shops on a meal-by-meal basis, and likes it that way.

The only unhappy faces I've seen here are those of the rich-shaw men but they, I am told, are not unhappy—they are just concentrating on their work, secure in the knowledge that "there's a motor in their future," somewhere up ahead.

A live fish never stops growing. Growth slows abruptly at sexual maturity, but the fish generally gets a little longer and a little thicker every year.

TIE KLANSMAN WITH GUN IN MURDER TRIAL

By REX THOMAS

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (AP) — State attorneys have linked Ku Klux Klan member Collier Leroy Wilkins Jr. with the weapon an expert says was used in the slaying of a Michigan mother taking part in civil rights demonstrations.

An earlier witness had traced a 38-caliber revolver to Wilkins, and Marion Williams, an FBI weapons expert, identified it Wednesday as the gun which killed Viola Liuzzo, 39, mother of five.

The chief prosecutor, Circuit Solicitor Arthur E. Gamble Jr., said he had "a few more questions" to ask Williams today before the state rested its case.

LAWYER HAS GUN

Matt H. Murphy Jr., the Klan's attorney, already had indicated through cross-examination of prosecution witnesses the course his defense may take. He also has shown a revolver which he said he took from FBI informer Gary Thomas Rowe Jr.

Murphy has not said how he will connect the pistol to the case. His only comment was, "I took it away from Rowe before he killed someone and blamed it on us."

The Klan attorney has sought to portray Rowe, the state's star witness, as a troublemaker hoping to collect a rich reward from the federal government if he could "help break the back of the Klan."

Mrs. Liuzzo, the wife of a Teamsters Union official, was shot to death near Lowndesboro the night of March 25 after taking part in the civil rights march from Selma to Montgomery and ferrying some of the marchers back to Selma.

SAW SHOOTING

Rowe, who said he joined the Klan at the FBI's request to get information, told the 12-man jury that he was in the car with Wilkins, Thomas and Eaton when Mrs. Liuzzo was killed.

He said Wilkins used Thomas' revolver to fire two shots at almost point-blank range as their car pulled alongside her automobile in a high-speed chase and emptied his gun at the car as they pulled away.

Williams, who works at the FBI laboratory at Washington, testified that a bullet found lodged at the base of the Detroit woman's brain was fired from Thomas' gun.

Another agent told the jury that the gun used in the laboratory test came from Thomas' home, and still another said a gun permit found on Thomas was issued for the same pistol.

Williams first testified that three bullets found in the car were determined by laboratory tests to have come from the gun which Rowe had said Thomas handed to young Wilkins just before the shooting.

The defense attorney refused to accept ballistics tests as valid but the FBI witness assured him they are.

SCARCITY OF PRIESTS

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI, speaking during a special Roman Catholic week devoted to attracting more persons to religious vocations, says the Church faces the "painful" problem of a scarcity of priests and nuns.

The Pope spoke Wednesday to a crowd of several thousand tourists during his weekly general audience in St. Peter's Basilica.

Actor, Mother In Same Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — Actor Zachary Scott went into a New York hospital Wednesday for what was described by his representative as an annual check-up.

Scott's mother, Mrs. Zachary Scott Sr., of Austin, Tex., also is in the hospital for treatment of acute arthritis. They are on the same floor.

The driest spot on earth is Chile's Atacama Desert, the National Geographic says. At one place, Calama, no rain has ever been recorded. Rainfall throughout the area is barely measurable.

Pennsylvania State Police First Organization Of Kind In U.S.; Founded In 1905

Pennsylvania State Police consolidated with the state police and the total was then 1,025 men, with the name, "Pennsylvania Motor Police." Later the Pennsylvania Motor Police barracks here was located at the former West Gettysburg Inn. In 1943 the name of the organization was restored to Pennsylvania State Police and at about that time the barracks was moved to the Hotel Gettysburg where it remained until 1949 when the present $56,278 structure was built along the Fairfield Road to accommodate the officers.

The present barracks has a central reception office where the officer on duty remains. His desk faces the door and he is ready to provide any service required. Immediately behind him is radio transmission equipment to permit him to call any or all officers in the state police if need be. A few feet from the desk are teletype machines connecting all of the state police barracks. Messages of all types, instructions, identifications and many others pour over the teletype 24 hours a day. Major matters are repeated every four hours.

SET UP BY PENNYPACKER

And members are likely to be sent anywhere in the state for special investigations. As an example, Trooper Patrick W. Malone, one of the 18 men assigned to the Gettysburg barracks, has been on special duty in Philadelphia since October in connection with the magistrate's probe there.

Not only are the state police the principal law enforcement agency for the state, but its former members not infrequently are called upon to continue their work in law enforcement by cities, boroughs and counties.

Two former state policemen prominent in Adams County law enforcement currently are former Cpl. James G. Warren, who has served as deputy sheriff for the county for a number of years, and former Cpl. Jack Bartlett, who is Gettysburg's chief of police.

The force set up by Governor Pennypacker in 1905 consisted of 228 men who had the job of patrolling the 45,000 square miles that comprise Pennsylvania. The first group were top quality horsemen, and training in horsemanship has been given every state policeman since. By 1919 the state police were increased to 415 men. The late Robert E. Tipton of Gettysburg was one of the first state policemen.

FORMED HIGHWAY PATROL

When state police came into existence 60 years ago traffic was not a problem. Ninety-nine percent was by horse and buggy, the other one percent by auto. The horseless carriage soon was present in such numbers however, that there was need for traffic law enforcement and in 1923 the state highway patrol was established. Many communities, such as Gettysburg, had separate headquarters for state police and the highway patrol. Here at one time the state police were in the Topper Building on Baltimore St. while the highway patrol was located in the Hotel Gettysburg Annex and later on Buford Ave. In June, 1937, the patrol was

JOE NAMATH IN WORKOUT

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Joe Namath, the New York Jets' $400,000 bundle of football joy, was back at his old stomping grounds Wednesday to work out for Jets' Coach Weeb Ewbank, who came away well satisfied with what he saw.

"He has a strong enough arm," the coach said, "and that's all I really wanted to see."

Ewbank said what he wanted the former University of Alabama football star to study was calling signals, formations and other fundamentals of the New York Jets' operation in order to save time once season practice begins.

The team will start practice in mid-July with Namath scheduled to report July 12.

Asked about Namath's knee, Ewbank said, "It's coming along fine. It seems to be a matter of keeping him working on it."

Eastern League

Springfield's Mike Davison must be getting to wonder what it takes to win a game in the Eastern League. You couldn't really blame him for thinking that way, after he lost his second, straight one-run game.

York defeated Springfield, 3-2, Wednesday, as Barry Moore bested Davison in a classic mound duel that developed after all the runs were scored in the first inning.

In other games, Pittsfield buried Williamsport, 13-5, and Elmira defeated Reading, 5-2.

Davison struck out nine, issued no walks, retired 17 batters in a row at one point, and gave up six hits, but it wasn't enough.

Moore also allowed six hits, and backed by Hank Allen's hitting in the first inning, made the one run margin stand up.

Allen doubled in a pair, following back-to-back singles, then scored himself on a high infield chopper. Springfield scored its runs when Julio Linarez tripled with two men on base.

Fifteen states have daylight saving time throughout the state, 16 allow local option and the remaining 19 make no provision for daylight saving time or prohibit it.

All of the officers are trained at the state police academy at Hershey.

In addition to their other duties most policemen have some type of specialty. A number have become top notch motorcycle riders and appear in state police rodeos.

The officers assigned to the local barracks are Sgt. David K. James, Cpl. Erich Bornemann, Cpl. Harold W. Eckenrode, and Troopers James J. Hydock, Elmer Soprano, James Adams, Donald Bukewitz, Donald Cherba, Paul Bradigan, Harold Herring, Edwin P. Karr, Clifford D. Lightner, Patrick W. Malone, Ronald L. ## Price-Fixing Companies Trying To Settle $400 Million Total Damages

By PHILIP J. KEUPER
NEW YORK (AP) — The bulk of the nation's electrical equipment industry, caught in a price-fixing scandal in 1960, today is in the final stages of settling damages approaching $400 million.

But because of a controversial tax ruling, the companies stand to save almost half the cost through tax deductions.

The ruling has sparked a clash between the Internal Revenue Service and some congressmen who charge that General Electric, Westinghouse and the 27 other antitrust violators are getting soft treatment. In the background is the case itself, one the Justice Department said involved secret agreements over eight years to fix prices, rig bids and divide markets on electrical equipment valued at $1.75 billion annually.

PLEADED GUILTY
The companies and 45 executives pleaded guilty or no contest to 20 antitrust indictments before a federal judge in Philadelphia who called the price-fixing "a shocking indictment" of a vast section of the economy. He sentenced seven executives to jail for 30 days in 1961 and gave 24 others suspended sentences. Fines totaled $1.9 million.

That was only the beginning. The price-fixing by companies supposed to be in competition covered products ranging from tiny $2 insulators to huge, multimillion-dollar turbine generators. Their customers sued for triple damages under the Clayton Antitrust Act, claiming they were overcharged.

U.S. BIG BUYER

The federal government, a big customer, settled for $8.8 million from 12 companies. More than 2,000 damage suits poured into the courts from private utilities and municipal power agencies. Most have been settled, almost all by negotiation.

An Associated Press poll of 14 of the 29 companies indicated the final settlement cost may total about $400 million. Almost all of this will come from the four top companies involved. They have paid or earmarked roughly $390 million.

The controversial tax ruling made last July by the Internal Revenue Service allows the companies to deduct the cost of damage settlements as "ordinary and necessary" business expense.

DEDUCTIBLE ITEMS
Only settlements made with the federal government and federal agencies weren't deductible said the IRS.

Sen. Philip Hart, D-Mich., and House Judiciary Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., denounced the ruling as a "tax giveaway" and demanded an investigation.

The Internal Revenue Service said the antitrust laws on damage suits were meant to reimburse the victim, not to punish the violator. As remedial damages, said the IRS, they are tax-deductible.

A report on the ruling is expected to be submitted to the Joint Congressional Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation this month.

11 Doors Tended By 78 Doorkeepers

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — State Rep. Robert Breslin Jr. has filed a bill to limit the number of doorkeepers and pages in the Rhode Island Legislature.

At present there are 126 lawmakers, and 78 doorkeepers and 95 pages. The Senate chamber has five doors and the House

ARSONIST BURNS GUARD VEHICLES

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A fire apparently set by an arsonist destroyed 15 military vehicles at the National Guard Armory Wednesday night.

Guardsmen saved more than a hundred other trucks, some of which were afire, when they rushed onto the field and drove them away from the flames and exploding gas tanks. There were no injuries.

Two eyewitnesses saw a man climb an eight-foot chain link fence with a container under his arm shortly before the fire started, according to a Guard spokesman.

Col. K. C. Bullard, commander at the Ft. Homer Hesterly Armory, estimated the loss "in excess of $100,000."

DISPUTE OVER REPAIRS TO SIDEWALKS

New Oxford borough council by a 4 to 3 vote, will direct repairs or replacement, as needed, of a number of sidewalks in the community.

After about an hour's discussion Wednesday night the council reached a 3 to 3 decision on an order that would start with Lincolnway East and West and Carlisle St. and direct replacement, or repair, as needed of all sidewalks deemed hazardous by council.

Council President Fred G. Klunk then broke the tie by voting in favor of the proposed repairs.

SAFEGUARDS FOR BEAUTY

The action however had certain safeguards to help retain the community's unique beauty. Brick sidewalks can be replaced—if the brick are put in a concrete base. Sand or stone base for bricks will not be allowed in connection with the repairs, according to the council action.

In addition council provided that if trees must be removed in order to effect repair of the sidewalks, the town will replace the trees. Discussion indicated possibly a half dozen trees will have to be cut down to properly do the work, and bring the sidewalks to grade.

Council voted to rescind a prior order closing the Orange St. railroad crossing.

ORDAIN STREET

Commerce St., in a newly-annexed area, was ordained as a street. Council was urged to return two large antique urns to the center plot in the town square. Originally there had been four such urns. Autos crashing into the square destroyed two. Council purchased four new urns and placed them in the square, removing the two remaining antique urns. Members of the New Oxford Garden Club and others attending the meeting of council Wednesday night argued for return of the possibly century - old urns on the basis of their beauty as compared to the replacements. Members of the Garden Club held that if the urns are returned the club will repair them and keep them in good shape.

The meeting of council had originally been scheduled for Monday night, but was postponed to Wednesday night. President Klunk explained the postponement was caused by inability of several councilmen to be present Monday night.

Florida has 17 springs of first magnitude, largest number found in any state. A first magnitude spring is one which pours forth at least 100 cubic feet of water a second.

six.

Breslin's measure, introduced Wednesday, would limit the number to 13 doorkeepers and 21 pages at an estimated saving of $61,800 in salaries at each session.

UN ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT IS CRITIC OF U.S.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Alex Quaison-Sackey, president of the United Nations General Assembly, says the United States should stop bombing Viet Nam to enable the start of negotiations without preconditions.

Quaison-Sackey, in a speech Wednesday night after accepting the Barnwell Award from the alumni of Central High School here, also said he hoped Communist China would eventually be admitted to the United Nations and that Germany would be re-united.

Commenting on the Viet Nam situation, he said that he found encouraging President Johnson's April 9 speech in Baltimore outlining the U.S. position, but said he believes "the bombing of North Viet Nam should cease in order that negotiations without preconditions could start."

He also urged the U.S. to re-appraise its entire position in Viet Nam "before events go beyond the point of redemption."

On the subject of China, he said:

"It is unfortunate that the Peoples' Republic of China (Communist China) with its 700 million inhabitants, has not yet been able to take its seat and be buffeted by the mainstream of opinion and ideas prevalent at the U.N."

He said he hoped China would be admitted eventually to the U.N. because "universality permits discussion, ventilation of conflicts."

In urging the re-unification of Germany, he noted that the existence "of two Germanies is already sowing the seeds of discord throughout the world."

Quaison-Sackey, who also is Ghana's permanent representative to the United Nations, received the Barnwell Award for "practicing the highest principles of honor and especially moral courage, regardless of immediate or apparent results."

SAY CLEMENTE IS HOPING TO LEAVE PIRATES

CHICAGO (AP) — All Roberto Clemente has to do is say he is ready to play and Pittsburgh Manager Harry Walker will greet him with open arms.

That's what Walker says. Clemente, defending National League batting champion, was not answering any telephone calls at his hotel room Wednesday night.

Clemente was quoted Wednesday by Al Abrams, sports editor of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, as saying:

"I want to be traded from this club, and I don't want to play for this manager any more."

The Pirates lost 3-1 to the Cubs Wednesday and the teams wind up their series today.

Clemente has been benched for several games after being used as a pinch hitter Sunday in St. Louis. He reported late for spring training after a bout with malaria at his home in Puerto Rico.

He batted .339 last year and .351 in 1961, when he also won the batting crown. His average this season is .265.

"He hasn't said a word to me about wanting to be traded," said Walker. "We certainly need him and want him back in the line-up as soon as possible. In St. Louis Sunday he said he wasn't feeling very strong and probably needed a rest."

"I thought it was a good time to rest him. But whenever he comes to me and says he is ready, we'll certainly welcome him. He is better than a lot of guys when he isn't even up to par."

Cargo Of Beer Upsets, Stolen

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — A trailer truck's load shifted at a slight downgrade and 1,900 cans of beer spilled onto the intersection.

Before the driver could stop, motorists and pedestrians scooped up all the beer and fled.

"I thought they were going to help salvage the load," Edmund Vandercaester Jr., said Wednesday, "but by the time I got the truck out of the line of traffic, there was nothing left to salvage."

NEW TV SOAP OPERA OPENS ON WEDNESDAY

EDITOR'S NOTE — With this column, the "Recommended Tonight" paragraph is being dropped for the summer season. Attention will be called, however, to the occasional specials or premieres of unusual interest.

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Well, Lisa Hughes has run away from Oakdale, her ex-husband, her child and all her troubles in "As The World Turns" to start a new life — and a new TV serial — in Chicago.

CBS' new evening soap opera started Wednesday night and in a half hour busily planted many little seeds that are bound to develop into big weepy problems during the weeks ahead. Lisa's new job is in a hospital, the ideal setting for a serial because it's a great place to meet people with assorted problems. She already has encountered an unhappy girl patient who has been kicked out of school, drinks too much, has fought with her boy friend and won't speak to members of her worried family.

Twice A Week

In terms of plot, the new two-a-week serial looks and sounds to this nonaddicted viewer about the same as the run-of-the-mine daytime soap operas. There seems to be one big difference. Nighttime characters spend less time sitting around drinking coffee and discussing their troubles. They discuss them but they don't drink so much coffee. Maybe we viewers should.

NBC, which has been leading the broadcasting pack in colorcasts, will have all except two of its regular evening programs next season in peacock raiment. The two black-and-white shows are "Convoy," an action series about World War II merchant ships, and a comedy series, "I Dream of Jeannie," cut along the pattern of supernatural "Bewitched."

More In Color

ABC, which started its colorcasts modestly with cartoon series and reruns of feature movies, now plans to move about a third of its evening entertainment programs into color. CBS, which has shown the least interest in color TV, has had a change of heart and policy. Eight of its regular shows will be in color next season — the Lucille Ball, Danny Kaye and Red Skelton shows, "Lasie," "My Favorite Martian," "Beverly Hillsbillies" and the new "Hogan's Heroes."

Find Young Thief In Roll Of Rugs

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Police rolled out the carpet to catch a burglary suspect. After receiving word Wednesday of a burglary, two officers chased a man from the second floor into the attic of a house. When they entered, the attic was empty except for a dusty carpet rolled up in a corner.

NUN WILL BE CONSULTANT TO JOB CORPS

By JERRY CURRY

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Sister Francetta Barberis is beginning again — with a tarnished silver dollar and a new job at the age of 65.

Sister Francetta, now president of Webster College at St. Louis, becomes a full-time consultant and coordinator for Job Corps centers for women June 1. She will wear secular clothing while working instead of the black robes of the Roman Catholic Sisters of Loretta.

"Life is a series of beginnings," she says. "Beginnings make life exciting and the final great beginning is death."

DONATED DOLLAR

When she became Webster

College resident in 1958, the school needed money and Sister Francetta started a fund drive. One day a student stopped her, handed her the silver dollar and said it was all she had to give.

"That silver dollar was part of my beginning here and I don't think I'll ever give it away," says the nun.

Sister Francetta thinks nothing of working in secular dress instead of the habit she has worn since 1928 as a Roman Catholic nun.

"People put too much emphasis on clothing," she says. "When I go swimming, I wear a swimming suit. When I work among the people, it would behoove me to wear the habit of the people."

APPEALS TO SENATOR

Permission to wear the secular clothing was obtained from the head of her order, Sister Mary Luke, when Sister Francetta decided she wanted to keep working after retirement from Webster.

"I believe in retirement at age 65," she says. "But I don't believe in stagnating."

She said she called Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., and asked him if he could help find her a job in the antipoverty program. Symington did — with the Office of Economic Opportunity.

CONTINUE CASE AGAINST FOUR ON KREBIOZEN

CHICAGO (AP) — A government witness has testified that Dr. Stevan Durovic, discoverer of Krebiozen, told him the government would have to "face eight million cancer patients" if the distribution of the substance was stopped.

The witness, Robert N. Palmer, a U.S. Food and Drug Administration agent, testified Wednesday that Dr. Durovic made the statement during an interview at the Krebiozen Research Foundation in Chicago April 22, 1963.

Dr. Durovic, 59, and three others are charged in an indictment with mislabeling, conspiracy, mail fraud and giving false information to the government.

Krebiozen is a drug taken by some cancer sufferers. Also in trial in the U.S. District Court of Judge Julius J. Hoffman are Dr. Andrew C. Ivy, 72, a physiologist and educator; Dr. William F. Phillips, 52, a general practitioner; and Marko Durovic, 64, a lawyer, Stevan's brother.

POLICE ARREST NINE IN SERIES OF VANDALISM

UPPER DARBY, Pa. (AP) — Police arrested nine Upper Darby High School seniors Tuesday in connection with a 10-month vandalism spree that included bombings and shootings in a three-county area.

Two of the youths, Stephen Deaulis, 18, of Drexel Hill, and Richard Ruth, 18, of Highland Park, waived hearings before Justice of the Peace James J. Ward.

They were released in the custody of their parents pending action of the Delaware County Court. Charges against them were malicious mischief by bombing and carrying bombs and explosives.

HOLD SIX OTHERS

Six other youths were to be turned over to Delaware County authorities, police said. Another youth was turned over to Montgomery County authorities.

Police said DePaulis and Ruth were charged specifically with setting off bombs in the locker rooms of Upper Darby High School and in the mailbox of one of the school's teachers.

The vandalism began with the shooting out of windows at the school last summer, police said. The mailbox bombings spread through Chester, Delaware and Montgomery counties. Police said there were 75 mailbox bombings in the three counties.

Others arrested: Michael J.

REEDY DENIES LBJ AGAINST ROCKING CHAIR

NEW YORK (AP) — George E. Reedy, White House press secretary, has denied a charge that President Johnson's disavowal of a "rocking-chair" approach to Communist aggression implied criticism of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Kennedy, who suffered from a back ailment, often was photographed in a rocking chair. Johnson also likes a rocking chair and invariably rocks and talks while visitors sit on a sofa.

Rep. Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., House minority leader, in New York for a fund-raising dinner Tuesday, said a statement by Johnson was an implied criticism of the failure of the Bay of Pigs invasion by Cuban exiles. The invasion was an attempt to unseat Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro early in the Kennedy administration.

In an address to a labor conference in Washington Monday, Johnson had said:

"We don't propose to sit here in our rocking chair with our hands folded and let the Communists set up any government in the Western Hemisphere."

"Of course not," was Reedy's reply in Washington when he was asked if the rocking-chair remarks implied criticism of Kennedy or the failure of the

World News

PANAMA (AP) — An advance U.S. military team left for El Salvador Wednesday to launch relief operations for victims of the little Central-American republic's disastrous earthquake.

The team under Brig. Gen. W.K. Skaer included medical corpsmen, sanitary engineers and supply personnel. They took along 400 pounds of medical supplies.

Some 20,000 families have been camping in the streets of San Salvador, fearing a repetition of the quake which struck before dawn Monday. It killed an estimated 105 persons and injured more than 500.

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese police said Wednesday that 50 persons have been killed, 5 are missing and 17 have been seriously injured in mountain-climbing accidents in the Japan Alps since the "Golden Week" holiday began May 1.

Police blamed the deaths on avalanches, blizzards, an unusual cold wave, and carelessness.

Four girls in their 20s were found frozen to death early Wednesday near their tent in the northern Alps.

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China sent a delegation of little-known, middle-rank politicians and military men to Moscow Wednesday for the 20th anniversary of Russia's victory over Nazi Germany.

The composition of the delegation reflected the poor state of Soviet-Chinese relations.

There are 18 species of hummingbirds in the U.S.

Ford said he supported the Johnson administration's actions in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic.

CIA AWARDS MEDAL TO U2 PILOT POWERS

NEW YORK (AP) — The Central Intelligence Agency in a secret ceremony has awarded a medal to Francis Gary Powers, the U2 pilot whose crash deep inside the Soviet Union five years ago "shook the world" and caused a good deal of anguish to the CIA, the New York Herald Tribune said Wednesday.

The copyright story from Washington also said in part: Powers, who ostensibly was a test pilot for the Lockheed Aircraft Corp., manufacturer of the U2, received the medal in a ceremony about two weeks ago at the CIA's headquarters in Langley, Va. He actually had been a $30,000-a-year pilot for the CIA.

Powers, now 35, is not supposed to wear the medal and is not supposed to tell anybody POWERS WAS TRADED about it.

It was reliably learned, however, that the medal was awarded at a ceremony attended by several top officials.

Powers, captured by the Soviets, was traded to the Russians, was traded to this country in 1962 for the Soviet master spy, Col. Rudolf Abel, who had been sentenced in federal court in New York City to 30 years in prison.

Tuesday night, for the first time, Soviet officials admitted that Abel was engaged in espionage for the Soviet Union when he was arrested in New York in 1957.

Marines Work Over A Viet Cong Village In S. Viet Nam

By PETER ARNETT
LE MY, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Marine infantrymen, jet warplanes and artillery worked over this Viet Cong village complex southwest of Da Nang Tuesday in the Marines' biggest offensive operation so far in South Viet Nam.

Pickings were lean. One Viet Cong was killed during the day-long search through the area. Three more Viet Cong snipers may have been wounded, and two sampans loaded with men were sunk in the Ca Be River by Marine Phantom supersonic fighter-bombers.

Three Marines were wounded, two by bullets and one by a mine.

FRUSTRATING DAY

"This was the most frustrating day of my life," said a young Marine lieutenant after the day-long chase of guerrillas who shot from trenches and foxholes, then melted into the underbrush as the charging Marines neared.

Nearly 900 Marine infantrymen were in action.

"We will have to stay out there much longer to really clean that place out," said Capt. Peter Yadowsky of Jersey City, N.J.

Marine tracked vehicles carrying six 106mm recoilless cannon and four 50-caliber machine guns were out for the first time in combat. Five of them moved in a column with six Marine medium tanks as a blocking force. They saw no action.

SPRAWLING VILLAGE

Le My is a sprawling village complex in the foothills eight miles from Da Nang.

A bullet tore into a Marine's stomach as Echo Company assaulted the village under sniper fire.

"Why did it have to be me?" the wounded Leatherneck shouted in pain. A medical corpsman bandaged his wound. The corpsman, Frank O. Saddler of St. Louis, Mo., grabbed the wounded Marine's rifle and ran off, saying, "I may be needed some place else."

Evacuation helicopters were slow. There was fear that the wounded man would not live but he did after two and a half hours on the operating table at the Marine hospital in Da Nang.

BULLET GRAZES HEAD

Villagers told a familiar story: "The Viet Cong were here and they come back to terrorize us at night."

"Maybe so, but how the hell do we get sniping from here even in daylight?" one Marine officer asked.

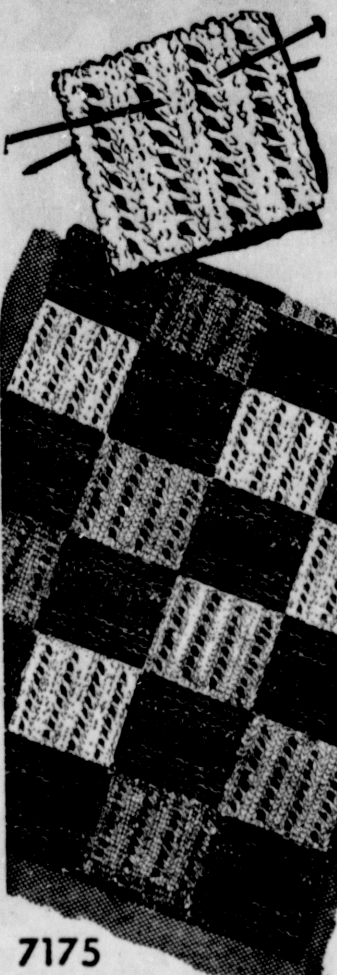

Just before noon the second Marine was hit. A bullet grazed his head and another went through both legs. "I don't feel a thing," he said as a medical corpsman raced up to treat him. A few minutes later he muttered, "It's starting to hurt a little."

The Viet Cong was killed at 1 p.m. A Marine fire team surprised him hiding alongside a dike.

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Defense Minister Abdul Haris Nasution left for Moscow Wednesday to attend the celebration of the 20th anniversary of the Soviet Union's victory over Nazi Germany.

Informed sources said Nasution also would seek more arms and spare parts for the Indonesian armed forces.

Chicago's Morrison Hotel Being Razed; Was Mecca For Famous Entertainers

CHICAGO (AP) — The Morrison Hotel's days are ending, but the memories are lingering.

The last guest has checked out, the babble of bellboys and conventioners has faded and the furnishings are on the auction block.

The closedown of the 46-story Morrison, once the tallest hotel in the world, winds up more than a century of turbulent real estate dealings.

The hotel's site — the corner of Clark and Madison Sts., in the Loop — originally was purchased in 1838 by Orsemus Morrison for $250.

Morrison came to Chicago in 1833, hired to clear a channel linking the Chicago River with Lake Michigan. It enabled ships to navigate the river inland to Chicago, then a village of 250 persons.

Morrison became Chicago's first coroner.

A modest hostelry was built on his swampy bit of land south of the river in 1860.

The Morrison now is owned by the First National Bank of Chicago. The bank also has acquired three acres adjacent to the hotel and plans to build a $60 million skyscraper to enlarge its facilities.

Back in 1871, the Chicago Fire destroyed the first Morrison Hotel and all its records. Two years later, an eight-story hotel was erected. The famous Boston Oyster House was established by John S. Wilson the same year in the basement of the hotel. It became a popular Midwestern center for seafood specialties.

SERIES OF MISFORTUNES

A short time later, ownership of the ground passed into other hands. It began when the wife of Capt. Edward W. Morrison, out nephew of the original owner, was visited by a lacemaker whose son was crippled.

Mrs. Balbena Morrison was so moved by the woman's story that she gave away her husband's coat. Resting on a chair, it contained $79,000 cash and an equal amount of bonds and securities.

The captain's bookkeeping system was such that the gifts might never have been discovered, but the lacemaker broadcast her good luck.

Various persons offered their services to help Capt. Morrison recover his property. A few years later the captain was sued for some of these services and judgments were secured against him.

SIGNED AWAY SITE

His attorney is said to have suggested: "If you have no property, the judgment is not good. Deed everything to me and they can't collect."

The captain signed away the Morrison site and everything else he possessed.

When the Central Trust Company, acting as receiver, sought to assemble his assets, they were able to collect $11.73.

Several years of litigation followed. The Morrison fortune had swelled to $3 million and was turned back to Capt. Morrison in 1922.

Capt. Morrison, who was a seaman on a whaler and was Chicago's first fire chief, died at age of 93 in 1929. A trust fund was set up from his estate to provide for an old people's home.

TALLEST IN THE WORLD

Harry C. Moir, who had worked as a waiter in a LaSalle Street restaurant, acquired control of the Morrison property during its receivership. He set out in 1903 to make the hotel the largest in the world.

The first two 21-story units were completed in 1911 and 1916. The 46-story section, which earned the hotel the title of the "tallest hotel in the world," was completed in 1925. (The Americana Hotel, New York, completed in 1962, now is the tallest.)

The final 21-story unit was completed in 1931. It brought the guest room facility to 2,210 rooms. In 1937, the fourth section was sold for taxes as the Morrison ran into financial difficulties. It was leased as the Chicagoan Hotel and was operated separately.

In 1953, the Chicagoan was purchased by the First National Bank of Chicago and leased to the Morrison Hotel for operation.

Meanwhile the Morrison was building a colorful reputation as a center for show business folk, political powwows and trade conventions.

In 1926, a federal prohibition agent disguised with a monocle and a British accent, tried to padlock the hotel after finding liquor there.

Ed Kelly and Pat Nash, Democratic boss, were known as the Kelly-Nash machine. During the early days, Nash had no set room in the hotel to hold meetings. He would check in and summon party leaders to his room.

A permanent office was set up by the Democratic organization in the 1930s on the third floor of the Morrison. Political observers say that the inner offices were the smoke-filled rooms where careers of governors, senators, alderman, judges and others were made or broken.

Chicagoans often referred to the Chicago politicians as "that Morrison crowd."

Willard Rutzen, who spent 35 years in the hotel, becoming its manager, promoted the hotel whenever he could.

CREATED QUEENS

Rutzen created the Strawberry Queen, the Corn Queen, the Blossom Queen and the National Cherry Pie Queen.

The hotel's Terrace Casino, seating 1,200 persons, became a mecca for such people as Sophie Tucker, Clyde McCoy, Gus Edwards, Ted Lewis and Martha Raye. Jack Dempsey led the sports world as a frequent guest in the hotel.

The Morrison's flag pole, 637 feet above the street, attracted the attention of Joe Powers, a flag pole sitter. He talked Rutzen into letting him try to break Shipwreck Kelly's world record of 12 days.

Powers went aloft July 1, 1927, and came down 16 days later the champion. He survived a windstorm that tossed him against the pole's cables and knocked out six of his teeth.

In 1952 the Morrison was purchased by a syndicate and renovated at a cost of $1.2 million.

By March 1963, the Morrison was in arrears in unpaid personal property taxes amounting to $300,000, according to county records.

When the Morrison is razed

U.S. HOLDS TO POLICY IN D.R.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States stood firm in the United Nations Wednesday in the face of growing pressure for a speedy withdrawal of U.S. forces from the Dominican Republic.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson was expected to reply in the Security Council this afternoon to a sharp attack by Uruguay and to a French call for a rapid end to U.S. military intervention in the Latin-American country.

But Stevenson made clear Tuesday that the United States intends to maintain its forces in the Dominican Republic until the Organization of American States has worked out plans to guarantee order under a constitutional government.

Cuban delegate Fernando Alvarez Tabio commented that this was a formula for indefinite U.S. intervention.

One of the hardest blows for the United States was the toughness of a denunciation by Uruguayan delegate Carlos Maria Velazquez. He declared that what he called the new "Johnson doctrine" was contrary to the traditional inter-American policy of nonintervention.

He suggested the Security Council might issue a formal call for a cease-fire and an immediate end to unilateral military action in the Dominican Republic.

There are about 6,000 medical libraries in the U.S.

which began January 1, it will be the tallest demolition job ever undertaken. In 15 months the Morrison will provide 25,000 tons of steel salvage and more than 300,000 tons of debris.

Push meat mixture aside; arrange onion rings in bottom of skillet; cover with meat. Pour cornbread batter over meat mixture. Bake, uncovered, in hot (425 degrees) oven for 20 to 25 minutes or until cornbread batter is baked through. Invert on a platter; serve at once.

FBI Agent Identifies Man Who Fired Two Shots Into Car Killing Mrs. Liuzzo

By REX THOMAS

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (AP) — A Ku Klux Klan attorney promised Wednesday to disprove an FBI undercover agent's story which named a young Klansman as the killer of a white civil rights worker.

The heavily guarded FBI informer, Gary Thomas Rowe, a Klan member, was called back to the witness stand to face intensive cross-examination by defense attorney Matt H. Murphy Jr. who had called him a liar.

Rowe, escorted to and from the courtroom by federal agents, testified in state court Tuesday that Collier Leroy Wilkins Jr., 21, fired two pistol shots at close range into the car in which Viola Liuzzo was slain the night of March 25.

FIRST ON TRIAL
Wilkins, a heavy-set, crew-cut auto mechanic from Fairfield, Ala., near Birmingham, is the first of three Klansmen brought to trial on first-degree murder indictments.

After Rowe left the stand, Murphy, the Klan attorney representing Wilkins, commented angrily to newsmen that Rowe had "told a G-- d--- lie and I'll prove it tomorrow."

Mrs. Liuzzo, 39, the mother of five and the wife of a Teamsters Union official, was shot to death while shuttling other marchers back to Selma following the civil rights march to Montgomery in which she, too, had taken part. A young Negro riding in the front seat with her escaped injury.

FIRE FROM CAR

Rowe, a husky former Birmingham barroom operator, now unemployed, told the 12-man jury he saw young Wilkins, on the back seat of a car beside him, fire two shots into Mrs. Liuzzo's car on a lonely stretch of U.S. 80 near Lowndesboro.

Driving the Klansmen's car as it pulled alongside the Liuzzo automobile, the witness said, was Eugene Thomas, 42, of Bessemer. Seated next to Thomas was William Orville Eaton, 41, also of Bessemer. Thomas and Eaton also are under murder indictment and awaiting trial.

ANOTHER FIRED
Eaton also opened fire with a 22-caliber pistol, Rowe said. But a state toxicologist, Dr. Paul Shoffeitt, who removed the death bullet from the victim's brain, had testified it was a 38-caliber slug which killed her.

Rowe said he had been a paid undercover agent for the FBI for five years. He and his colleagues first noticed Mrs. Liuzzo and her Negro companion, he said, while waiting at a traffic light in Selma and followed their car for some 25 miles before finally overtaking it.

They tried several times to pull alongside Mrs. Liuzzo's car, Rowe went on, but each time something intervened. Once they spotted a highway patrol car. Another time it was a crowd of Negroes standing near the highway. Later, it was oncoming traffic.

The witness said he tried several times to get his companions to turn back to Selma but that Thomas insisted, "We're going to take 'em. We're not going to give up."

When the time came, Rowe continued, "Gene Thomas got out his pistol and handed it to Wilkins. As we got directly even with the car, Wilkins said, 'Give it some gas'. We speeded up a little bit."

"Wilkins held his arm out the window, elbow length. Just as he got even with the front window of the other car, the lady turned and looked directly at us. As she looked, Wilkins fired two shots."

"Thomas said, 'Men, shoot the hell out of them.'"

Rowe said he also had a pistol but did not fire it.

Abducted Man Dies At Age 67

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Edward Bremer, a St. Paul, Minn., bank president who was kidnapped by a gang and returned after a $200,000 payment in 1934, died Tuesday after a heart attack. He was 67.

Bremer, son of Adolph Bremer, founder of the Schmidt Brewery, was dead on arrival at Holy Cross Hospital.

His widow, Emily, said the kidnaper were later found and convicted but there was no trace of the money.

Bremer and his wife were winter residents in nearby Pompano Beach.

His body was to be returned to St. Paul for funeral services and burial. Besides his widow, Bremer is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Betty Johnson of St. Paul.

SEEKS REPEAL OF PA. SCHOOL LAW OF 1963

HARRISBURG (AP) — Challenging legislative tradition, Rep. Alan D. Williams Jr., R-Bucks, has called for discharge of a bill tied up in committee since Feb. 16 that would repeal the 1963 school district reorganization act.

Williams introduced the discharge resolution Wednesday which, if passed, would require the committee on elementary and secondary education to release the measure to the floor immediately for a vote.

But veteran legislative observers on Capitol Hill cannot recall of any discharge resolution ever passing in the legislature because of the reluctance of many lawmakers to challenge the committee system.

VOTE NEXT WEEK

Under legislative procedure, all bills are referred to committee first, then examined and, if approved, sent to the floor for a vote of the entire membership of the House and Senate. Many bills are killed in committee as inconsequential or unnecessary.

Williams' motion is expected to be brought up for a vote next week, probably next Monday, and would require a constitutional majority of 105 in the House to pass.

Although not a sponsor of the bill, Williams has indicated he strongly favors repeal of the school district reorganization law, act 299, which requires a reduction in the number of school districts in Pennsylvania by July 1, 1966.

The law was passed by the Scranton administration in 1963 on the theory that reducing the number of school districts and increasing their size is the best way to provide quality education.

QUARREL CONTINUES

Williams said he opposes the mandatory feature of the act and would prefer legislation that would allow the merging or consolidation of school districts only if all sides are agreeable.

Meanwhile, the House remained snarled for the third straight day in an intra-party battle between big city Democrats and their rural colleagues over reapportionment which has resulted in all bills being read at length.

Despite the time-consuming efforts, the House acted on a total of 32 bills, including final passage of legislation that would require a secret vote on state police court-martial proceedings.

45 MEASURES RELEASED ON SENATE FLOOR

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Senate's working calendar is getting larger.

A total of 45 bills were released from various committees during the three days the chamber was in session this week.

The latest 18 were released Wednesday during a 40-minute meeting.

Most of the latest bills released from committee were rather routine. One, however, would authorize local governments to appropriate matching funds to participate in the federal anti-poverty program.

PASS 3 BILLS

The chamber passed three bills before adjourning until Monday, including a $1 million supplemental appropriation for the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority for the current fiscal year. The bill went to Gov. Scranton for his signature.

Another bill passed by the Senate and sent to Scranton, 49-0, was a measure to permit beer distributors to submit construction plans for new or enlarged facilities while their applications for licenses are being considered by the Liquor Control Board.

Present law requires the facilities to be completed before the board can consider the application.

The other bill removes the present 20-year lien on mental health grants made by the state.

to non-sectarian institutions. It was sent to the House, 49-0.

BILLS RELEASED

Among the bills released from committee were proposals to:

- Permit local authorities to erect traffic signals at intersections of nonstate roads without prior approval of the state highways secretary.
- Allow creation of local parking authorities to contend with the problem of on-street parking congestion.
- Appropriate $500,000 for the University of Pittsburgh computer center.
- Permit golf carts to cross the public highways when being used in the sport.
- Require flashing amber light on all repair or emergency vehicles.
- Require school buses to flash their signal lights when discharging or picking up student passengers.

PROBERS TOLD OF REBATES

HARRISBURG (A)—A Montgomery County dairy executive, testifying at a state hearing into reported kickbacks in the milk industry, says his dairy gave rebates to customers over a seven-year period.

August L. Martin, vice-president of Martin Century Farms, Lansdale, said Wednesday the dairy paid as much as $35,000 a year from 1957 to last March 1.

The hearings in Harrisburg are being conducted by the State Milk Commission and the Justice Department. Previous hearings, ordered by Gov. Scranton, were held in Pittsburgh and Erie.

Martin Farms was purchased last October by the Lehigh Valley Farmers Cooperative. Glenn A. Boger, president of Lehigh Valley, also testified and said when his cooperative took over Martin Century he did not know of the rebates.

In other testimony, a Philadelphia grocer said that he unsuccessfully tried to secure a rebate from Sealtest Dairy in Philadelphia for selling its milk.

Canadian Girl Aids Civil Rights Fight

TORONTO (AP) — A pretty quiet-soken Canadian girl who spent last summer as a Civil Rights worker in Mississippi has come home to talk to Canadians and persuade them to help.

Diane Burrows, 22-year-old native of Belleville, Ont., spent her first year after graduating from the University of Toronto working at a girls' reform school in Jamaica under the Canadian organization.

Back in Canada, Miss Burrows read about volunteer projects proposed for Mississippi. On her own initiative she got in touch with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and went to Biloxi, Miss., for the summer. What she wants from Canadians is awareness and involvement.

"I'm always asked: 'Why bother? It's an American problem. Why don't you stay in Canada and work for the Indians and Eskimos?'"

INDIAN FATHER HAS UNUSUAL "OFFICE" JOB

NEW DELHI (AP) — To all you millions of secretaries and stenographers in plush offices in America: You think you've got it tough?

Meet Ravi Chand Syal, 46-year-old father of six who makes his living the same way you do — but with difference often found in impoverished India.

There's no air-conditioned office, electric typewriter and beautiful polished desk for Ravi. He's a freelance typist, but you might call him a sidewalk stenographer or shade tree secretary.

Ravi works outdoors.

His office is a rag suspended by four bamboo poles. His typewriter, rented for $3.57 a month, is old and battered but gets the job done. His table and chair, which he made himself, have splinters.

For the last 12 years, Ravi, one of thousands such typists in India, has worked outside a government office where Hindu refugees from Moslem Pakistan come to apply for compensation for property and belongings left behind in their flight.

Although it's been nearly 18 years since partition started the massive population shift, it's still going on. Refugees submit various statements and petitions to the government, and Ravi types them up.

LOW DAILY EARNINGS

He gets 10 cents for the original typed page and 5 cents per copy. His daily earnings average between $2.10 and $3.15.

That's precious little to feed and clothe himself, his wife and two sons and four daughters ranging from 6 months to 20 years old.

"Food costs almost all I earn every month," Ravi says, "especially since prices have increased so much, but we get enough to eat most of the time."

Working outdoors could be pleasant in good climate, but India is not most of the year. Summery weather lasts from March through November, with scorching temperatures up to 115, and the monsoon brings months of almost steady rain.

Having to be available for customers, Ravi makes no move to escape the blazing sun, but when it rains he gathers up typewriter paper, table and chair and runs for a nearby shed.

What does he think of his work?

"It's not so bad," he said. "I earn more money typing than I would doing some other jobs."

Opossums are the fastest breeding mammal known. America's only pouched animal produces young about 13 days after mating.

Solons To Study Menace To Morals

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Assemblymen, told that shows featuring young ladies in topless or bottomless bathing suits are a menace to morals, have decided to study the subject.

On split voice votes, the Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee Tuesday night killed three bills aimed at prohibiting the spreading California topless bathing suit shows.

MUSIC UNION IS DISTURBED

NEW YORK (AP) — Bar the Beatles? Turn Herman's Hermits into real hermits? Restrict the Animals? Stop the Rolling Stones?

"Oh! ye gods! Unfair!" screamed Margaret Kurnyta, 17, of Chicago, a Beatle fan.

A transatlantic dispute between the British Musicians Union and the American Federation of Musicians over British groups taking extra engagements while in the United States and thus putting American performers out of jobs has thrown the beat music scene into discord.

The result may be to bar various British groups from the United States. American bans would be barred from making British tours.

"CAN'T DO THIS"

The disclosure struck a sour note with some American teenagers.

"They can't do this," protested Bonnie Lou Vorbeck, 16, of Charleston, W.Va. "It must be illegal or something. If the Beatles can't come here and our singers can't go there, then I don't think any diplomats or ambassadors ought to be visiting back and forth either."

As it stands now, the two unions have scrapped their hard-

MINES MORE LETHAL THAN ARMED FORCES

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's safer to be in the armed forces than working in the mines, a Teamsters Union official has told a House labor subcommittee.

Sidney Zagari, Teamsters legislative counsel, testified Wednesday that the Defense Department reported one death per 13,532 members of the Armed Forces in 1964. A 1962 government study, he said, listed one fatality for each 1,088 men employed in metal and non-metal mines.

Zagari said the figures indicate it is 13 times safer for a person won "treaty" governing exchanges of pop music performers, and will allow no more exchanges once current contracts have been honored.

Harry Francis, a spokesman for the British Musicians Union, said talks are going on between the two unions and promoters and they hope to get the treaty working again.

Meanwhile, fans of the Beatles, the Animals, and the Dave Clark Five can relax. The American tour planned for the Beatles this fall will go on as scheduled because the contracts already are signed. The Dave Clark Five and the Animals have contracts for U.S. appearances and these will be carried through as planned.

to become a member of the armed forces than to take a job in a mine, pit or quarry.

The subcommittee is considering proposals to establish federal inspection and other safety measures in non-coal mines. Coal mines that employ 15 or more miners have been subjected to federal safety regulations for years.

Representatives of the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers, the AFL-CIO International Chemical Workers and the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers also endorsed the proposals.

PROFIT IN AIRLINES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leslie O. Barnes, president of Allegheny Airlines, on the basis of first quarter showings, predicts the company may show a profit for the first four months of 1965, compared to a $156,133 loss in the same period last year.

Barnes said Wednesday, Allegheny had a profit of $7,523 in March compared to a $34,325 loss in March of 1964.

Summit Conference May Hurt Communist World

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

An Asian-African summit conference this summer in Algeria is likely to produce a loud anti-American chorus. But there is every chance that fireworks involving the Soviet-Chinese Communist quarrel will mean the event will do far more damage to world communism than to the United States.

The West, excluded from the conference, will look on as intensely interested spectators. But probably the Soviet Union too will be on the outside looking in. The way matters shape up now, the Russians already have lost a battle with the Chinese for representation at the meeting.

FORESEE SHOWDOWN

Thus, the conference may be another phase in the splintering of the world Communist movement. It could bring Moscow and Peking close to a climactic showdown.

This meeting of heads of state, called a "second bandung," is scheduled tentatively to open June 29 in Algiers with heads of state and delegations from more than 60 Asian and African nations. But the real fight will take place at the foreign ministers level a week before, when the Russians are expected to lose their battle to be represented as an Asian nation.

The conference gets its name from a meeting in Bandung, Indonesia, in April, 1955, when political leaders from 29 nations met on "problems of special interest to Asian and African peoples." There were conflicts then, too, but today's are far more meaningful.

KEEP OUT MALAYSIA

Indonesia will battle to keep out Malaysia. A number of African nations will try to exclude the Leopoldville Congo. There will be conflicts involving India and China, India and Pakistan, Pakistan and Afghanistan, just to mention a few. But above all, what will be watched will be the continuing battle for influence involving pro-Soviet Communists and the pro-Chinese.

ence involving pro-Soviet Communists and the pro-Chinese. There seems little doubt at this time that the Chinese will dominate.

For months the Chinese have worked diligently through diplomatic channels in Africa and Asia to undermine Soviet prestige and bolster the claim that the USSR has no right to be called an Asian nation. The Red Chinese have been trying to slam the door to Asia in the Russian face, and in Africa have contested with Moscow for influence, patently using racism and mistrust of the white man as a weapon.

INDIA BACKING

The Russians will try hard to get a foot in the door. They will be supported by India and probably some of the new African states, but the Chinese have laid their groundwork well and probably will prevail.

The first Bandung Conference, at a town 75 miles southeast of Indonesia's capital of Jakarta, was initiated by the Colombo Plan nations—India, Pakistan, Burma, Ceylon and Indonesia—who in 1954 invited representatives of 25 other nations to a meeting.

Excluded were Israel—to avoid offense to Arab nations—Nationalist China and South Africa. These nations will be excluded again. India and Burma insisted on inviting Red China over Ceylon's objections, but the Ceylonese gave in when Japan also was invited to attend.

OTHERS IN SCRAP

Other participants in the original Bandung meeting were Afghanistan, Cambodia, Egypt, Ethiopia, Gold Coast, Iran, Iraq, Jordan, Laos, Lebanon, Libya, Nepal, Philippines, Saudi Arabia, Sudan, Syria, Thailand, Turkey, North Viet Nam, South Viet Nam and Yemen.

The conference accomplished little beyond setting up a sounding board for pro-Communist propaganda and building Red China's prestige. It was, however, the beginning of today's Asian-African bloc in the United Nations.

A preliminary "economic seminar" of representatives of more than 60 Asian-African nations in Algiers in March gave an indication of how the political wind was blowing. Red China clearly dominated that meeting.

The economic seminar produced a long series of draft resolutions which echoed slogans seemingly manufactured in Peking. These concerned arms and financial aid to "national liberation movements," a call for breaking relations with "colonialist countries," and advice to new nations to build themselves up by "relying on one's own resources." This has been a defiant Peking slogan ever since the Soviet-Chinese rift led to the withdrawal of Soviet technical and economic aid from China.

The economic seminar also produced a resolution urging that the "Asian-African solidarity movement" be extended to nations of Latin America "and in particular to Cuba."

The baton at this meeting clearly was in the hands of the Chinese. Pro-Western voices will be present in June, but in all probability will be drowned out. And so, apparently, will be the pro-Soviet voices.

NO MYSTERY REMOVED BY CIA ON SHOW

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — NBC's news department put a titillating title, "The Science of Spying," on Tuesday night's special program which doubtless caused many viewers to anticipate that a real man from U. N. C. L. E. or a James Bond type would describe his adventures in stealing the plans or breaking the top-secret code.

If so, they were quickly disabused by narrator John Chancellor who said the spying business has gone a long way since Mata Hari and that currently "the dagger is replacing the cloak."

After that, the program was primarily devoted to interviews about activities of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency.

DEFENDS CIA

Former CIA Director Allen Dulles defended the agency's work and expressed admiration for Soviet intelligence. He called its operation in Czechoslovakia "a classic," and said its Cuban work was "marvelous".

Our CIA differs in its operation, he said, because "as far as I know, we don't engage in assassination and kidnappings and things like that."

Chancellor to the contrary, there is still plenty of cloak wrapped around the CIA and it was not removed at all Tuesday night.

SCHEDULING PROBLEMS

ABC-TV President Thomas W. Moore, responding to grumblings about public service and special programs sometimes being scheduled opposite each other by the networks, has suggested that, to avoid such conflicts, the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences set up a clearing house for such programs.

Rod Serling, academy president, immediately accepted the idea and said he would take it up with the other two networks.
